MARKET LETTER.

Furnished the Ardmoreite Daily By H. & B. Beer of New Orleans—An interesting Cotton Statement.

Monday, April 19, 1897.
Dear Sir—Trading since Tuesday was quiet and the little trading done was chiefly among local operators and room traders. Prices, however, on the near positions have advanced a few points while the late remains practically unchanged. The feeling generally is cheerful, being stimulated by good Liverpool advices and the less favorable weekly weather and crop bulletins issued by the government. Receipts are light and the river situation shows no improvement, therefore traders exhibit no disposition to sell under the circumstances; consequently all these factors have a tendency to harden and help the market. Notwithstanding the apparent strength of the position, no outside speculation is attracted towards the article, and those favoring the same are not inclined to increase their holdings.

Yesterday 22,000 cases of manufactured cotton goods were auctioned off at New York and sold about 7 1/2 per cent under ruling prices. The sale was considered poor and discouraging by many, yet others claim the returns were fairly good, taking the present dullness of trade into consideration. Irrespective of the sensational reports of damage to the growing crop, we think well of cotton on its merits, believing that ruling prices are not dear, consequently we advise buying on depressions.

Very truly yours,
H. & B. BEER.

To All Concerned.

Sovereign C. C. Turner, chairman of Sovereign Managers W. O. W., Omaha, Neb., will visit Ardmore on the 30th of April to deliver a public address to the citizens of Ardmore and vicinity on the subject of Woodcraft, and on that day only applicants will be admitted to membership for $3 entrance fee. Any one desiring membership on that date at the reduced rate will apply to Dr. Bogue, camp physician, T. C. Bridgman, clerk, or any member of our camp for blanks, etc.

GRIM VISAGED WAR.

The Powers Could Not Prevent It—Turkey the Aggressor—Christian Greece Will Fight Till Death.

The war now begun between Greece and Turkey means, in the end, a general war in Europe. So opine the officials of our own government who are closely watching the issue.

This foreign war, however, is one in which this government can in no way become involved.

The few American citizens in those countries reside in cities where they are not liable to be molested, consequently the only course for this country to maintain is one of strict neutrality.

Opinions vary as to the duration of the conflict, some are of the opinion that it will be brief and decisive, while others think it will continue until the powers of Europe decide that hostilities have gone far enough, when they will step in and put a stop to the war.

In Greece the total war strength of land forces is 209,422, total navy strength 43 vessels. While the total war strength of land forces in Turkey is 867,300, with a naval strength of 12 ships.

Thus it will be seen that the Turks have a land force of 4 to 1 against Greece, while on the high seas, the reverse is the case, Greece having the advantage over Turkey at the ratio of 7 to 2.

Diplomatic relations between the two countries have been severed, and grim visaged war now holds sway. The Associated Press reports of yesterday from Rome and Athens are given below:

Rome, April 19.—A dispatch from Arta says the Turkish fortress at Prevesa was destroyed by the fire of the Greek war ships and the position of the Turks is untenable. Four thousand Greeks, the dispatch adds, have been landed for the purpose of occupying Prevesa.

A second dispatch announces that 2000 Albanians who started into Greece with the expressed intention of reaching Larissa have recrossed the frontier and are now ravaging Epirus.

Athens, April 19.—Firing commenced this morning between the Greeks and Turks at points along the frontier. Col. Manos at the head of 25,000 Greeks crossed the river Arka-phos on the frontier of Epirus and is now entering that part of South Albania after having driven back the Turkish advance posts. The bombardment of Prevesa was resumed at daybreak. The landing force has not yet attacked the place. A dispatch from Greek headquarters at Larissa this afternoon says three important positions were occupied near Menaxa today by Greek troops. The Greek battleship Spetzai is taking part in the bombardment of Prevesa. A body of 700 Greek insurgents were landed at Syrakp. Epirus, and are now marching on Filiplida. Numerous other Greek bands of insurgents have entered Epirus.
